

Subscribing to an RSS feed

Step 1: getting news emailed to you

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) website. The header includes the TEC logo and name, navigation links (Site map, Contact us, Feedback), and a search bar. A yellow arrow points to the RSS button in the top right corner, which is labeled 'RSS' and 'Print version'. A callout box with a black border and white background contains the text: 'Step 1: Click on the RSS button (no matter where you are on the site)'. The main content area features a 'Welcome to the TEC' section, a central 'INFORMATION FOR' section with links for 'Learners, Students, Trainees and Apprentices', 'Employers', and 'Tertiary Education Organisations (TEOs)', and a 'Previous headlines' section with a link for 'for the 2010 Investment Plan cycle are complete'.

Step 3: using a feed reader

Step 3: Go to a website like Feed my Inbox www.feedmyinbox.com and paste the news link in the box, and then add your email address.

The screenshot shows the 'feedmyinbox' website interface. At the top, there is a logo consisting of a stylized orange and white box with a feed icon, followed by the text 'feedmyinbox' in a bold, sans-serif font. Below the logo, the tagline 'Blogs, Feeds and News magically delivered to your email' is displayed. The main form area contains three input fields: 'Enter a website URL', 'Enter your email address', and a 'Submit' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with links for 'How does it work?', 'Login', 'Extras', 'Blog', 'Terms', 'Privacy', and 'Help'. Copyright information for Brightworks, LLC is also present.

Step 4: You will get an email asking you to confirm your subscription. Once you confirm then you will receive a daily email whenever there is new information added to the site.
